

35th Annual ACFE Global Fraud Conference

The Office of the National Public Auditor had the great opportunity to attend the 35th Annual ACFE Global Fraud Conference this year held in Las Vegas, Nevada. Participants from the Office of the National Public Auditor's Office consisted of National Public Auditor Mr. Haser Hainrick, and the Compliance Investigation Division Team.

The Conference commenced on June 23 to 28, 2024 at the Aria Resort & Casino hotel. This Global Fraud Conference aimed to strengthen and enhance anti-fraud professionals' abilities and skills in detection and prevention of Fraud and Corruption within the private and public sectors. It was one of the largest ACFE conference ever garnering more than 5,000 participants attending in person and virtually. The hybrid conference features keynote presentations, educational sessions, networking receptions, and an exhibit hall. Notable experiences include hearing live experiences from Convicted Fraudsters, Whistle blowers and experienced Professional Fraud Examiners. More than 90 educational courses were offered to attendees for the 6-day conference. The conference provided a great opportunity to network, exchange knowledge, and learn from professionals in related fields.

Overall, the Annual ACFE Global Fraud Conference is very important to the Investigation Division as it provides essential knowledge and information that would be incorporated into its investigation and prevention procedures.
